English words from Chinese This list parallels my similar pages on words from Arabic and Amerindian languages. The main sources are the OED, the AHD, a number of Chinese dictionaries, ZhongWen.com, and Wikipedia (for nailing down the exact characters). I've included a number of proper names, partly because it's fun to know that (e.g.) Mao means 'wool', partly because Chinese place names tend ...

Stinky tofu can be eaten cold, steamed, stewed, or, most commonly, deep-fried, and it is often accompanied by chili sauce or soy sauce. The color varies from the golden, fried Zhejiang-style to the black, typical of Hunan-style stinky tofu.. From a distance, the odor of stinky tofu is said to resemble that of rotten garbage or smelly feet.
