Dragon fireballs are special fireballs that the ender dragon shoots while strafing. They cannot be deflected, and do no damage on impact, except that they emit purple clouds similar to a lingering

Potion of Harming II. Like the dragon's close-ranged breath attack, the clouds emitted by dragon fireballs can also be collected in a bottle to obtain the dragon's breath.

RE: Your unethical bullshit. I don't usually get riled up about things like this, but you've really crossed the line with this one. Petri Purho is too nice a guy to sue you. He should, and would be successful in doing so; you have copied the mechanics, level structure, look, feel, and sound design of Crayon Physics. He's too nice a guy even to write you a strongly worded email.

Tetris sales are a lie. Why does Tetris, and only Tetris, get to claim tens or even hundreds of distinctly different games as a single game? Minecraft actually does have a similar issue because of all the different editions; however, it is more unified today and many of those older purchases have converted to the unified version.
