The Letters To The Seven

Each letter can be divided into seven parts, the Lord's title being the first one. Then come a commendation, a criticism, an admonition, a call, a challenge, and a promise. Two of the seven letters, Sardis and Laodicea, contain no commendation, and in two, Smyrna and Philadelphia, no criticism is given.

2. The Gospel is the central theme in the letters to all seven churches and many Christians completely miss this. To each of the seven churches it is said that the one who overcomes will obtain the promised reward (Revelation 2:7, 11, 17, 26, 3:5, 12, 21). However, the passage itself does not define what it means to overcome.
