Emily's parents, Kari and Tom, were concerned about the next step for their daughter. They wanted a second opinion, and turned to Susan Rheingold, MD, of the Cancer Center at Children's Hospital of Philadelphia. Dr. Rheingold confirmed what their local oncologist had recommended — try another round of more intense chemotherapy to see how Emily's cancer would respond.

December 7, 1941: Franklin Delano Roosevelt said it was a day that would live in infamy. Americans alive at that moment can still, more than a half century later, recall vividly where they were when they heard the news that Japanese aircraft had struck the United States Pacific Fleet's base at Pearl Harbor, Hawaii.
